THE HAMILTON CLUB was organized on April 9, 1890—the twenty-fifth anniversary of the surrender at Appomattox.

Its first home was 21 Groveland Park, the premises being occupied on September 16th, 1890. On May 1st, 1895, the Club removed to 3014 Lake Park Avenue. Soon thereafter a movement was begun for a downtown location, and on March 14th, 1898, the upper floors of a building on the south side of Madison Street, just east of Clark Street, were occupied. Another advance was made May 19th, 1902, when possession was taken of the building at the northwest corner of Monroe and Clark Streets, where, for ten years, the Club grew and prospered.

In the winter of 1910-11, under the leadership of John H. Batten, then president, the Club leased for ninety-nine years the ground on which the present club house now stands, having a frontage of 102 feet on Dearborn Street and a depth of 95 feet. The cornerstone of the new building was laid October 30th, 1911, by the President of the United States, William Howard Taft, and the Club moved into its new home in May, 1912. The new club house, the erection of which was inspired by the needs and aspirations of the membership, is located in the heart of the business district, and is one of the handsomest and most complete structures of the kind in the country.

The influence of the Hamilton Club has been most forcefully exerted during presidential campaigns. Whenever a Republican National Convention has been held in Chicago the Club has kept open house, entertaining the delegates and other notable personages and hearing the spokesmen for the various presidential candidates. In 1896 a large corps of speakers was organized by the Club and more than a hundred working men's meetings were addressed upon the great financial issue of the contest. In 1900 two hundred and fifty members of the Club participated in the campaign as speakers. Six noon-day meetings were held each day, three of them downtown and three in factory districts.

The Club is famous for the many large mass meetings which have been held under its auspices, among which a conspicuous example was that of October 20th, 1894. The throng that gathered on that occasion was so great that the First Regiment Armory was taxed beyond its capacity, making it necessary to hold an overflow meeting in a large building near by. These meetings were addressed by Hon. Thomas B. Reed, and it was estimated that over 17,000 people were in attendance. Subsequently Mr. Reed was elected an honorary member of the Club, and in December, 1895, on the occasion of his election as speaker of the House of Representatives, the Club presented him with a handsome gavel, made of wood from the farm of Henry Clay, wrought with gold and silver trimmings, and bearing Alexander Hamilton's famous words: "As too much power leads to despotism, too little leads to anarchy."

Several large meetings were held during the campaign of 1900, the most important of which were the great Roosevelt meeting at the Coliseum, with an overflow in the First Regiment Armory and two immense gatherings in the Auditorium Theater. Throughout this entire campaign, nightly stereopticon exhibitions of scenes in the Spanish-American War were given, with short presentations of Republican doctrines.

The Club has always been active in movements for the promotion of the general welfare and for civic betterment. It was very largely through its efforts that the local Civil Service law of 1895 was adopted. Later, a standing committee was created whose duty it is to report infractions of the law and make recommendations for its proper enforcement. About the time of the adoption of the law, the Club made belief in Civil Service Reform for city, state and nation a requisite for membership.

Prior to 1911 a banquet, known as "Appomattox Day Banquet," was given on April 9th of each year, in commemoration of Lee's surrender to General Grant at Appomattox Court House, Virginia, in 1865. This banquet was then discontinued and a banquet has since been held annually on January 11th in commemoration of the birth of Alexander Hamilton. Upon these occasions the Club has been addressed by men of national or international reputation.

In January, 1912, the Club held a monster mass meeting in the Auditorium Theater in the interest of world peace, particularly advocating the passage of the treaties then pending in the United States Senate, and has entertained many persons identified with the movement for the elimination of war and its disastrous results.

The annual oratorical contests, given under the auspices of the Club, between universities of the Middle West, are a feature which attracts wide attention.

Many of the most distinguished men of the country, and of the world, have been entertained by the Hamilton Club. Among its guests have been the acknowledged leaders in all lines of civic achievement, especially the leaders in the party upon whose principles the Club was founded.

The Hamilton Club is a Republican Social Club. It is a public-spirited, wide-awake, hospitable association—one that attracts live men, welcomes new members and makes them feel at home. In addition to its strong social features the Club is inspired by a sense of patriotic duty, which renders it a vital force wherever its name is known. That its aims are being successfully accomplished is proven by the recognition which it receives as the unswerving defender and promoter of good government.

Constitution

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

The name of this Association shall be "Hamilton Club of Chicago."

ARTICLE II.

OBJECTS.

This Club is incorporated for the advancement of political science; to promote good government—local, state and national; to develop the growth and spread of patriotism and of Republican principles; and to cultivate friendly and social relations among its members.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1. The membership of this Club shall consist of five classes: resident members, non-resident members, life members, honorary members and United States Government members. All applicants shall be pronounced Republicans of lawful age, believers in Civil Service Reform—municipal, state and national, and of good moral character. Holders of elective public offices and employes of the federal, state, county and municipal governments shall not hold any office in the Club, nor be members of the Board of Directors.

RESIDENT MEMBERSHIP.

Sec. 2. Citizens of the State of Illinois residing or having a place of business within thirty-five miles of the club house, with the above limitations, shall be eligible to resident membership. The resident membership of this Club shall be limited to two thousand.

NON-RESIDENT MEMBERSHIP.

Sec. 3. All citizens of the United States, residing more than thirty-five miles from the club house, or in another state, being pronounced Republicans, and of good moral character, shall be eligible to non-resident membership, but shall not be eligible to any office in the Club nor to membership on the Board of Directors, nor on any standing committee, and shall not be entitled to vote at any annual or semi-annual meeting; provided, that any person having an office or regular place of business in Chicago shall be classified as a resident member only.

Subject to the foregoing limitations, non-resident members shall enjoy all the rights and privileges of resident members.

All applications for resident and non-resident membership received after the membership roll is filled as limited herein shall be placed on file and numbered and posted in the order in which they are received, and thereafter at all times shall be considered in such order by the Membership Committee and Board of Directors.

HONORARY MEMBERSHIP.

Sec. 4. Any person who shall be nominated by the Board of Directors may be elected an honorary member by the Club at the annual meeting, and shall enjoy all the privileges of other members, except voting and holding office.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP.

Sec. 5. A life member shall hold membership during the period of his natural life. Resident, non-resident and honorary members may become life members on payment of the fees herein provided for life memberships. Life members shall have all the rights and privileges of these By-Laws. The number of life memberships to be issued is limited to two hundred. The Board of Directors may at any time, in their discretion, refuse to sell new life memberships, but this provision shall not affect the right of transfer of outstanding life memberships.

Life memberships shall be transferable by will, by inheritance or by assignment. A transferee shall have the same right of transfer as the original holder of a life membership. The owner of a life membership, or his legal representative, shall give thirty days' notice of the transfer, together with the name of the transferee, and the purchase price, and the Board of Directors shall then have the right to purchase such life membership at the said purchase price, or, if the transfer is by will or inheritance, at the last previous purchase price of a life membership (not less than $500.00), of which the Board of Directors were duly notified. If the Board of Directors shall not purchase said life membership, they shall then authorize the said transfer, provided the transferee is already a member of the Club, or has applied for the said life membership and had his application acted upon by the Secretary and favorably passed upon by the Membership Committee, under Sections 7 and 8 of this article. No transfer shall take effect until it has been thus authorized by the Board of Directors and until the transferee shall have paid to the Club a transfer fee as follows: $10.00 for resident member, $85.00 for non-resident member, and $110.00 for any other person. For the mere purpose of allowing a re-transfer, a transfer by will or by inheritance shall take effect without compliance with any of the foregoing provisions.

A life member who assigns his membership, if he notifies the Board of Directors, at the time the transfer of his life membership takes effect, that he desires to be transferred to some class of membership to which he is eligible, shall be so transferred, without the payment of any fee, even though the limit of membership in such class may have been reached.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT MEMBERSHIP.

Sec. 6. Commissioned officers of the Army and Navy and of the Revenue, Marine and Hospital Service of the United States, and Judges of the United States Courts, stationed or living in Chicago, or within fifty miles thereof, may be elected to membership in the manner prescribed for resident members, such membership to expire with the removal of members from said district. They shall be exempt from payment of initiation fees and dues, and shall not be subject to the limitation placed upon resident members by Section 2 hereof.

APPLICATIONS.

Sec. 7. All applications for membership shall be signed by the applicant and endorsed by at least two resident members knowing him. The Secretary shall, at least ten days before the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors, mail to each member a notice containing the name, address and occupation of every person who shall have been proposed for membership, together with the names of his endorsers. No application shall be acted upon unless the above provision shall have been complied with.

Sec. 8. All applications for membership shall be passed upon by the Membership Committee after due inquiry. As soon as any application is received by said committee, such committee shall post on the bulletin board of the Club a card containing the name, places of residence and business, and occupation of the applicant, together with the names of the members by whom he is endorsed. This card shall remain so posted until the Board of Directors shall have balloted upon the application. All applications for membership, so reported by the Membership Committee, shall be acted upon by the Board of Directors, and its proceedings thereon shall be secret, confidential and final. The vote shall be by ballot, two negative votes rejecting, and the board shall pass upon each application separately. Notice shall be sent by the Secretary to each candidate upon his election, together with a copy of these by-laws, and a request for payment of his membership fee and the monthly proportion of dues for the term during which he was elected; payment will be held as an acceptance of membership and a submission to, and agreement to be bound by, the by-laws and rules of this Club. Failure to make this payment within thirty days shall render such election null and void.

Sec. 9. Any member whose conduct shall be hostile to the objects or injurious to the character of this Club, or who shall violate its by-laws or established rules, may be suspended or expelled from the Club by two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors. No member shall be condemned without an opportunity to be heard in his defense, such member having the right to appeal to the Club, if such appeal be made within thirty days.

Sec. 10. Any person who, from any cause, shall cease to be a member, shall forfeit his rights and interest in the property of the Club.

Sec. 11. All resignations shall be in writing, and addressed to the Secretary, but no resignation shall be accepted while the member is indebted to the Club.

Sec. 12. Any former member who shall not be in any way indebted to the Club and whose resignation shall have been previously accepted, may at any time thereafter be reinstated in full membership at his own request upon such terms as the Board of Directors may in each case determine, provided that every such person shall be posted as required and re-elected by the usual ballot and shall thereupon pay to the Club all dues which would have accrued, had he uninterruptedly maintained his membership, or a reinstatement fee of not less than one-half the amount of the regular membership fee.

ARTICLE IV.

FEES AND DUES.

Section 1. The membership fee of resident members shall be $100.00 and of non-resident members $25.00.

The life membership fee shall be not less than $500.00, plus the transfer fee as provided in Article III, Section 5.

Sec. 2. The dues of resident members, except the Secretary and Treasurer, who shall pay no dues, shall be fifty dollars per annum, payable in advance, in quarterly installments of twelve dollars and fifty cents each, on the first days of February, May, August and November of each year. The dues of non-resident members shall be twelve dollars and fifty cents per annum, payable annually in advance on the first day of February. Payment of dues by members shall commence with their election, they paying a portion of the quarterly dues corresponding to the unexpired portion of the current quarter, no notice being taken of the fraction of the month. A resident member who shall become a non-resident may, upon written application and approval of the Board of Directors, be transferred to the non-resident membership list. A non-resident member becoming resident within thirty-five miles of the club house may become a resident member when the Board of Directors approve his transfer to resident membership, and he shall thereupon pay so much of the full admission fee for resident members as he has not previously paid, and shall pay resident membership dues thereafter.

Sec. 3. No member whose house account prior to and including the preceding month or whose current dues are unpaid shall be entitled to vote. The Board of Directors shall not have the power to remit dues. The Treasurer shall cause to be mailed to each member on the first of each month a statement of his indebtedness. If the same shall not have been paid by the fifteenth of said month, the member so failing to pay his account shall be subject at any time thereafter at the discretion of the Office and Accounts Committee to suspension until said account shall be paid, or to such other penalties as the Board of Directors may impose. Suspended members shall not be entitled to the privileges of the Club House during the period of suspension. When the dues or other indebtedness of any member shall remain unpaid for two months after proper notice is mailed, his membership may be declared forfeited by a vote of the Board of Directors, his name and the amount in arrears having previously been posted on the Club's bulletin board for ten days, and he shall thereupon cease to be a member of the Club. A member thus forfeiting his membership may be reinstated within three months of his forfeiture by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors and upon payment of all arrears. Any person whose membership has been forfeited for non-payment of dues shall not be eligible to re-election to membership in the Club until all moneys owing by him to the Club are fully paid.

ARTICLE V.

VISITORS.

Section 1. Any member may introduce as a visitor for a single visit, without a special card of admission, a gentleman who is not a member of the Club. No gentleman residing within thirty-five miles of the club house shall be so introduced for more than three visits in any three consecutive months. But gentlemen who are not members of the Club, and who reside within Club limits, may, under the general supervision of the House Committee, be invited to private entertainments in such rooms as may be designated by the House Committee for such entertainments.

Sec. 2. A card of admission extending the privileges of the Club for not more than ten days shall be issued upon the application of any member to any gentleman not residing within thirty-five miles of the club house. Such card may be once renewed for the same period. The privileges shall not be thus extended to the same visitor more than twice in any one year, nor shall more than one renewal of the card be made, except by a vote of the Board of Directors. In no case will the privileges of the Club be extended to a non-member for a longer period than one month. Members will be held responsible for the conduct and indebtedness of their guests.

Sec. 3. Officers of the Army and Navy of the United States shall be entitled to all privileges of the club house.

ARTICLE VI.

OFFICERS—THEIR POWERS AND DUTIES.

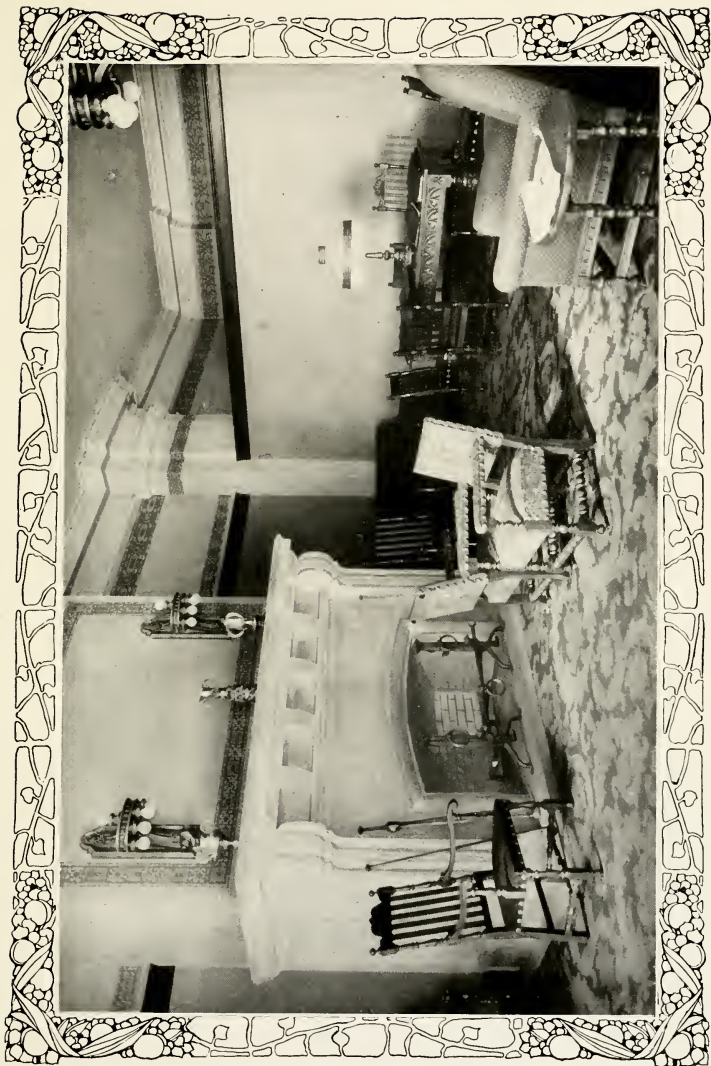

Section 1. The officers of this Club shall consist of a President, First and Second Vice-Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer. No one shall be eligible for election to the same office in this Club for two consecutive terms.

Sec. 2. The President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer shall be elected on the third Monday in May in each year, for a term of one year, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

MEETINGS AND ELECTIONS.

Section 1. The regular meetings of this Club shall be held on the third Mondays in May and November, at 8:00 P. M. The Board of Directors shall have power, when the interests of the Club require, to postpone meetings for one week.

Sec. 2. The regular meeting in May shall be the annual meeting, and the regular meeting in November the semi-annual meeting.

Sec. 3. Upon request of the Board of Directors, or of any ten members of the Club, the President shall call a special meeting, notice of which must be mailed to each member of the Club at least three days previous to date of such meeting.

Sec. 4. Twenty active members shall constitute a quorum.

Sec. 5. Elections by the Club shall be held on the day of the annual meeting and invariably be by the individual ballots of members present. The polls shall be opened at 12:00 o'clock noon, and closed at 6:00 P. M. The number of judges shall be three, to be appointed by the President. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to mail a notice of the annual election to each member of the Club at least twenty days prior to each election, and such notice shall include a copy of this section of the by-laws. Said notice shall state what offices are to be filled, and the names of the retiring officers.

Nominating committees to nominate tickets for officers and directors of the Club and members of its Political Action Committee to be voted for at the annual election shall be selected as follows:

At the regular meeting of the Board of Directors in March of each year, upon notice mailed by the Secretary, five days previously to each officer and director, there shall be selected a committee of nine members of the Club, none of whom shall then be a member of said

Board, who shall nominate a ticket for officers, directors and members of the Political Action Committee, to be voted for at the ensuing annual election. Said nominating committee shall be selected as follows: Each officer and director present at said meeting shall propose the name of one member; the names thus proposed shall be written upon separate slips of paper (no name in duplicate), and placed in a box, from which all the names shall be drawn separately by lot; the first nine drawn shall constitute the Nominating Committee, and the next six, or so many as remain, shall serve in their order of drawing, as alternates in case of necessity. The Secretary shall at once certify and post the names of the fifteen members so chosen, in the order in which they shall be drawn, as members of said Nominating Committee, and alternates; and shall notify each member of the time and place of the first meeting of the committee. The ticket nominated by said committee shall be posted on the bulletin board, with all reasonable dispatch, not later than the tenth day of April.

Notice of these requirements of the By-Laws shall be mailed by the Secretary to every officer and director, at least five days prior to the regular March meeting of the Board.

On the fifteenth day of April (or on the sixteenth, if the fifteenth shall be Sunday), of each year, a special meeting of the Club shall be held at the Club House, at the hour of 1:00 P. M., of which notice shall be given by the Secretary by posting the same on the bulletin board, and by mailing a copy thereof to each member of the Club not less than five days prior to said meeting. Said meeting shall be called to order by the Secretary, and shall forthwith organize by the election of its own chairman and secretary. At said special meeting, there shall be chosen by ballot, fifteen members of the Club, not officers, directors or members of the nominating committee previously chosen by the Board of Directors. Said fifteen names shall be placed in a box and drawn therefrom; the nine persons whose names shall first be drawn, shall constitute a Nominating Committee; the remaining six shall, in the order of their drawing, serve as alternates in case of necessity. This committee shall forthwith meet, organize and proceed to determine whether or not nominations other than those previously made by the other Nominating Committee shall be advisable. Said committee shall have the right to nominate for any or all offices to be filled at the ensuing election, or to endorse the candidacy of any person. The names of the candidates so selected or endorsed, shall be filed with the Secretary at least twenty days before the date set for the election and forthwith posted by him on the bulletin board; no person shall in any event be named for any office without his consent.

After the nominations made by both committees for the respective offices to be filled at the ensuing annual election shall have been posted, a booklet shall forthwith be prepared by the Secretary, under the supervision of the Board of Directors, and at the expense of the Club, giving appropriate data concerning each candidate; and a copy of each booklet shall be mailed to each member of the Club.

Voting members of the Club, equal to not less than five per cent of the voting membership, may nominate candidates for any or all offices. Such nominations shall be in writing, shall be signed by the members making them (who shall pledge themselves to vote for such candidate or candidates), and shall be placed in the hands of the Secretary (at least ten days before the date fixed for the election), who shall attach his certificate that such nominations have been made by not less than five per cent of the voting membership, and shall forthwith post said nominations with the certificate on the bulletin board.

Said Nominating Committees shall continue to hold office until the annual election next succeeding their selection, and shall fill any vacancies that may occur in their respective tickets through death, withdrawal or other cause. No member of the Club shall be eligible to membership on a Nominating Committee two years in succession.

The Secretary shall cause to be printed and mailed to each member of the Club, at least five days before each election, a ticket containing a list of all offices to be filled at such election, and the several candidates nominated therefor. Members shall vote at the annual election by placing a cross opposite the name of each candidate for whom they desire to vote, and no other ticket shall be counted. The several candidates receiving the highest number of votes for the several offices to be filled, shall be declared elected.
